Relax in African style

Africa Safari Maasai Boma is a unique accommodation. Not only because of its ideal location, with Kenya's Maasai Mara in its backdrop, situated between Lake Natron to the east, Serengeti National Park to the west and the Ngorongoro to its south, but also due to its design. As the accommodation's name suggests, it is inspired by a traditional Maasai boma. Look around you and you'll understand why; you're in their midst.

The village is called Ololosokwan and although not located in an official game reserve or national park, even here you will find game now and then, especially during the Migration period. Wildlife does not know boundaries!
